

NEW CORONAVIRUS RECOVERY FUNDING FOR THE ARTS & CULTURE IN SPOKANE

INDIVIDUALS

NONPROFITS

BUSINESSES

Professional creatives, arts sector workers, arts organizations, and arts businesses with unreimbursed negative economic impacts from the pandemic are encouraged to apply for this new Federal benefit payment. Visit www.spokanearts.org/ARPA to apply.

ELIGIBLE IMPACTS: Unreimbursed losses or expenses over $1,000 incurred between March 11, 2020 and May 10, 2023.

FUNDING: Everyone who is eligible for support will receive some level of funding. The greatest support will be provided to our most impacted communities.

DEADLINE: Spokane Arts' online application opens on November 1, 2023 and completed applications will be due on December 15, 2023.

This Federal benefit is NOT TAXABLE.

APPLY HERE:
spokanearts.com/ARPA

Large
Print

Spokane Arts is happy to help with ASL, spoken language interpretation, and large print materials. If you need these accommodations or others as you prepare, please contact our Community Navigator, Juan Mas at juan.spokanearts@gmail.com.

This funding is made possible by United States American Recovery Plan Act (ARPA) dollars received by the City of Spokane and distributed by Spokane Arts.